

The book cover is a deep red color with a pebbled, leather-like texture. A large, stylized letter 'B' is embossed on the left side, spanning across two horizontal bands. These bands are separated by a central horizontal strip. The top and bottom sections of the cover also have the pebbled texture.

Dedication

We, the class of '60, were the only class to be blessed with the expert guidance of Miss Kathryn Sorensen for two consecutive years. Not only in her English classes but also in our everyday life was she willing to pause and give of her time and talents. Although we were sorry to have her leave Algona High, we know that other fortunate students will reap the benefits of her guidance just as we have. Though we cannot say in a few words all that we know she deserves, we, the class of '60, in deep gratitude, hope that this dedication may serve as a tribute to a wonderful friend.

May, 1960

To the Class of 1960, A. H. S.:

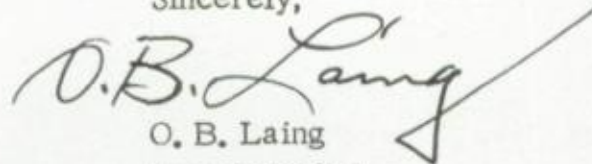

It was only yesterday that I looked out my office window that bright September morning and saw you on your way to kindergarten; and I noted a hint of a tear as Mom hurried out after hasty and covert exchanges with your new mentor.

And it was just this morning that I realized with a shock that 13 years had passed in a day -- that those feet which hesitantly led to our door yesterday were now lagging in their exit.

We who worked with you in those 13 years are both happy and sad. Happy for all our joint successes, sad for all the things we might have done. We were indeed a severe taskmaster at times. But "a man's reach SHOULD exceed his grasp" so we should not now waste time in regret for what we missed. Then, too, there was no doubt someone along that journey who kindled something within your mind and personality that will not be quenched -- you may not know it yet. They may have been friend, parent, teacher -- and when you realize it they may be far away. What then? Simple answer: do as much for another who is struggling through that 13-year day.

The milestones ahead will slip by at an always greater tempo in an increasingly complex world. But the "mystic chords of memory" extend through eternity; and that is why we shall always remember you.

Sincerely,

O. B. Laing

School

The advanced educational system of Algona High School is a direct result of the tireless efforts of the school board members. It is their desire to give the students the very best in educational opportunities. So unnoticed by too many people, they weave the intricate pattern in the administrative fabric.

Board

MR. HUTCHINS

MRS. MURTAGH

MRS. WOLFE, Secretary

MR. EVANS

The able administrator, in the person of Mr. Jack Evans, rises to the many demands made on him as high school principal. Besides his regular disciplinary duties, teaching atomic energy class, and recommending students for colleges and jobs, he also does substitute teaching. Truly, he must be a "Jack" of all trades.

Principals

MR. CHALLY

The junior high is indeed grateful for the expert guidance of Mr. Chally in preparing them for their next step in learning. Mr. Chally has become known to his pupils as a principal of keen awareness and understanding of their problems.

Seniors of '60

A little happy, a little sad and with nostalgic memories of our high school days, we file for the last time through the doors that bear, "These doors are open to all who wish to learn." As we do so, we recall some of the highlights of our high school days--first of all, at the close of our freshman year, the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" sung by mixed chorus with such feeling that it left many of us in tears...the day we finally got our class rings . . . our homecoming floats that placed first in both our junior and senior years . . . the emotion aroused from our Junior Class Play, "A Man Called Peter" . . . and, of course, our great achievement "Around the World in 80 Days" for the Junior-Senior Prom. These are only a few of the many opportunities we've shared as a class, along with our important educational training. Now, as we enter an adult world--some of us headed for further schooling, others of us to jobs and still others to begin homes of our own--we hear the last dying strains of "Pomp and Circumstance." As we flip our tassels to the right and reverse our class rings, we know that for the class of '60, "Beyond the blue horizon, awaits a beautiful day . . .", the day when we, as adults achieve our goals in life.

Junior Class

The class of '61 --- yes, everyone knows the junior class is the largest class, which makes up a good share of the clubs. Also, no one can forget the athletic teams, each of which is composed of over half Juniors.

The class of '61 takes pride in the 99% rating from the Iowa Tests of Educational Development. We also can't forget the money-making, the busy pre-prom days, the fun at career day, and our losing floats at homecoming. The arrival of the class rings was another memorable day. Although, within a few days, many boys apparently "lost" theirs!

Yes, we are a big class --- AND a good class --- we THINK the BEST!

Sophomore Class

The Sophomore Class of 1960 was full of vim and vigor. Our boys on the B squad added much to Algona's sports. Remember our float at Homecoming? We took second place; however, it did have a tendency to fall over in the parade! We also had our own "Sophomore Taxi"--a little black Volkswagon packed full of kids. We had an energetic basketball manager who always seemed to take the locker room keys home and cause a disturbance among the coaches. Do you recall the Alpine hats and peroxided hair of a number of boys (and girls)?

Yes, we had a wonderful year as sophomores at A.H.S. and are looking forward to the coming years as upperclassmen!

Freshman Class

Activities thrived in this year's freshman class. Many frosh participated in sports, music, and clubs. Our boys played on Fresh-Soph teams and a few even participated on the varsity squads in basketball, wrestling, and track. Terry Brandow placed fourth in the A.A.U. meet, and Bob Patton placed third in the districts. We also had four cheerleaders from our class. A group of freshman girls was runners-up in the G.R.A. basketball intramurals. The Symphonettes, choruses, and band also found room for the freshmen. As for clubs, who could forget G.R.A. Initiation with air raids, washing cars, cleaning sidewalks, and stunts in the gym? Although the frosh float for Homecoming didn't place, everyone enjoyed himself in the making of the float. Gary Kelley won a state art award and Charyl Cook participated in the Conference Play. The freshmen upheld academic credits; many students were on the honor roll and two had straight A's.

All in all, we freshmen had an exciting school year and are looking forward to the next three years as the ambitious class of '63.

IN MEMORIAM--Lana Gerber

She was a joy to the teachers, a friend indeed. She was in many activities including pep club, band, chorus, sextet, a cheerleader, and vice-president of her homeroom. A wonderful friend, very well liked, and respected among classmates, a friend we'll never forget--this was our Lana.

A.H.S. BULLDOGS

Although it was not a successful football season in the won and lost column, it was a season of betterment for many members of the team. The fine running of the Algona backs and the vicious line play of the team brought many thrills to the fans of the Bulldogs.

The Bulldogs came close to beating several teams in this year's tough North Central Conference. In the first game of the season, the Bulldogs were beaten by a field goal at the hands of Emmetsburg. The last three games were played in rain and mud, causing difficulties for all teams concerned.

Since many underclassmen saw action this year, the Bulldogs will be able to build a better team for the coming years, boosting that wins column.

Basketball

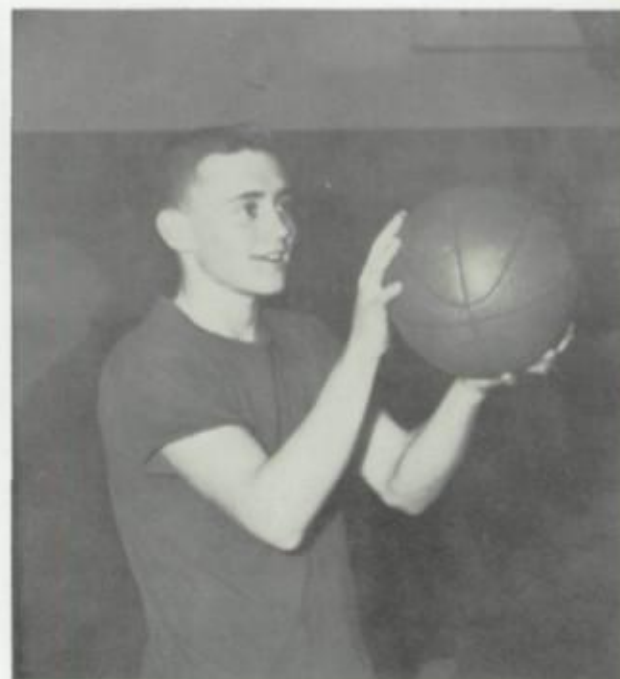

This year's basketball season cannot be considered a failure. The Bulldogs finished 5th in the tough North Central Conference with a 4-7 record and a total for the season of 6-11. The highlight of the season was the sensational win over Cedar Falls during Christmas vacation on Sports Night. Algona will lose two men from the '59-'60 season. One of them is a starter, Jerry Cowan, whose service will be missed next year. He was fourth in scoring in the conference this year with a 15.1 point average in the conference and an over-all record for the year of 16.4 with a total of 262 points. Many of the younger boys saw action this season; therefore, the Bulldogs will be the team to watch in the coming year.

Wrestling

Algona's tough wrestlers finished with the best record of 6-3 since 1950. Three dependable seniors will be lost, yet the team will be stronger than ever next season since most of this year's boys were underclassmen.

EAGLE GROVE INVITATIONAL

Britt won the E. G. Invitational tournament, but Algona got two firsts, two seconds, and one third. As a team Algona tied for second place in the tournament with Clarion. Jason Etherington and Jerry Seiler placed first.

DISTRICTS

Jason was the only Algona man to qualify for the State tournament with 4 sensational wins in the districts. Algona placed 4th as a team.

STATE

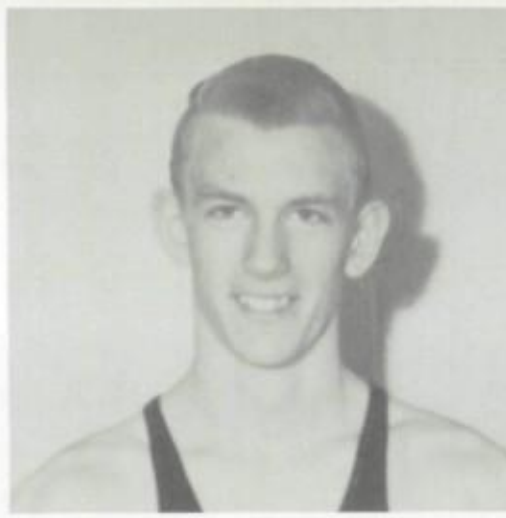

The State Meet was held at Cedar Falls this year and Algona's lone entry, Jason, won the championship in the 133 pound class.

A. A. U.

The AAU is not a team affair. It is based on individual wrestlers and their achievement. Eleven Algona men wrestled in the meet, held one week after the State Meet. Bob Kern won the 175 lb. title, while Orland Steil placed second in the 112 lb. class.

This year's track squad did a remarkable job and ended up fourth in the conference standing. Despite the rain and the cancelled meets, three school records were broken. Jerry Cowan broke the high jump, Gary Peer broke the high and low hurdles, and Jerry Ostrum broke both the shot and football throw records. Algona placed fourth in the all-conference meet at Eagle Grove. Gary Peer placed third in the hurdles at the State Meet and the mile relay team was also entered.

DRAMA

Senior Class Play

"My Three Angels" by Sam and Bella Spewick, is the comedy based on the activities of three convicts during a hot Christmas in French Guinea. Directed by Ron Diggins, the play provided an amusing barrel of fun for the audience and the cast. The plot included the usual love tangle which was finally straightened out with the help of murderers, snakes, and dead uncles.

Junior Class Play

The Junior Class presented "The Curious Savage" by John Patrick. It was a three act comedy based on the lives of the inhabitants of The Cloisters, a mental institution. The characters were portrayed simply, yet with both humor and insight, which added to the over-all appeal of the play. Directed by Ron Diggins, the play provided a pleasant evening of entertainment for the public.

Symphonettes

These thirteen girls have entertained people not only at school concerts but also at business and social organizations throughout the year. They sang such well-known songs as "The Night Before Christmas" with a male group in the Christmas Concert and for the Spring Concert sang "Gigi," and "Speak Low." They closed their year with an engagement at the Junior-Senior Banquet during which their repertoire included "Sidewalks of New York" and "Moments to Remember."

Mixed

Mixed Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Snustad, has again brought the public a great variety of music throughout the school year. Three concerts were presented this year: the annual Christmas Concert, a Lenten Vesper Concert, featuring all religious music by the mixed chorus and solos by Jason Etherington and Kim Deal, and finally American's Show Time in the Pacific for the spring concert. Among the highlights of the concert were selections from "South Pacific," a calypso, "The Banana Boat Song," "She Walks in Beauty," directed by Kim Deal, and the quartets, Four Jacks and a Jill and Three Hits and a Miss. A special part of the program was reserved for Kim Deal who sang 7 numbers in a show of his own.

Chorus

Their trip for the year was at Christmastime when the chorus traveled to Mason City and appeared on KGLO-TV. They also entertained three other high school choruses for the conference vocal festival in February. As you can see, the vocal department has been very busy working up music for your enjoyment. A big "thanks" goes to Mr. Snustad, a terrific director.

Chorus

Among their repertoire were "The Best Things in Life are Free," "Dites-Moi," from South Pacific, and "When You Wish Upon a Star." These girls (above) met on Monday and Wednesday mornings. Under Mr. Snustad's capable direction, they managed to combine with the band girls' chorus to provide entertaining music for all.

Annual Staff

Annual Sales were booming high this year. Selling ads to businessmen provided the major source of income for the expense of the annual. Later in the year the public purchased an annual for three dollars.

Aside from missing some receipt books and running short on layout mats four days before the final deadline, the job was finally accomplished and the deadline met. We hope it has brought you enjoyment and renewed your high school memories.

Student

This year's Student Council was one of the most active in the school's history. The successful homecoming topped with the annual Christmas family and charity projects paved the way toward even a bigger accomplishment -- that of bringing a foreign student to our school. We owe much of the success of the council to its advisor, Mr. Alberts.

National Honor Society

The annual National Honor Society spring banquet ended the second year of the Algona chapter. Meeting the basic requirements of scholarship, character, leadership, and service, nine new members were initiated into the club. It now consists of seven seniors, six juniors, and the three probationary sophomores. The National Honor Society should be a goal of all students for scholastic recognition and self-satisfaction.

Pep Club

In its third year of existence, the Pep Club has done much to increase the spirits of the athletes as well as the student body. Besides cheering the teams to many victories at home, much yelling and noise-making with our newly added cow bells went on to the out-of-town-games. We showed that we had spirit to spare by the fine exhibit we put on at our game with Garrigan. Next year we are planning on a very pert Pep Club to increase school spirit and rally our teams to top spots in the conference.

Cadettes

As we seniors of 1960 began our four years of high school, a drill team composed of twenty-four girls selected on ability, grade average, and personality was organized by Mrs. Moxley. Since then we have become a familiar group to the community and school. Our activities include precision drills and various dances during the half-time of basketball games, and appearances on television. We hope your future in Cadettes, underclassmen, will be as enjoyable as our past years have been.

Art Club

The motto of the Art Department might well be, "These Doors Are Open to All Who Appreciate Art."

Miss Condon's art classes produced their usual quota of work, indicating her fine guidance in technique and workmanship.

In addition to the regular art course, art club gave a chance to all who could not get into a regular class held in A.H.S. to do independent work, and one of the best exhibits ever held in the school, and offered a chance for about 1,200 visitors to see junior and senior high school art work.

Awards in Scholastic Contest and the American Legion Auxiliary poster contest were won by Gary Kelly.

Adult classes produced fine work--a fine expression of the interest in the Algona Community.

D. E. C. A.

Better-business school relations in Algona have developed through the work of the Algona chapter of Distributive Education Clubs of America. During the past year D. E. C. A. sponsored a Junior Business Education Day where the Juniors were given a tour of some of the businesses in Algona. The D. E. C. A. State Convention at Des Moines was a highlight of the club's work. Each of the club members took part in the different competitive groups pertaining to salesmanship. To Honsbruch's, Penny's, S and L, Shilt's, and Western Auto the D. E. C. A. members wish to express their thanks for a chance at on-the-job training.

Debate

This year, the debate team had a fairly good season by winning at Buena Vista and placing high in several other major tournaments. In addition to the pictured debators, Ron Tschetter and Kim Deal were active in forensic work. With three outstanding veterans coming back, Mr. Palmer can look forward to another good season for Algona debators next year.

Somewhere between Iowa City and Ames (I'm not sure of the exact distance) lies a coffeehouse fashioned after those of the Victorian Era in London. The owners are none other than JOHN WILSON and JIM JOHNSON, graduates of the class of '60. I had heard that the establishment was well-known for its "da-da" paintings by Jim, so thought I'd drop in one week-end.

Jim was busy with a new painting but between splats found time to talk. I asked him if any of his classmates had visited the coffeehouse. He nodded yes, and said he had sent invitations to them three years ago, and all had at one time or another replied in person.

He acted a bit dejected when he revealed that the former JUDY ALEXANDER, JOLEEN GARDNER, EVELYN JAMES, NANCY LEIGH, JUDY MCVAY, JOANNS MINO AND MUCKEY, and KAREN SEILER are now much-married and have at least three children apiece. (I remembered later that this didn't contribute to Jim's plan for halting the tremendous population increase in the U. S.) Stopping on their way to a teachers' convention were Misses DEGROOTE, HARDY, WILLIAMS, and NORTON, now teaching in the Algona Public School system and occupying two convertibles, plus a ten room apartment on the outskirts of town. Coaching has become the career of JASON ETHERINGTON who sings solos in church on Sundays. BOB KERN has turned to professional wrestling and is now called "Butch the Body." JERRY OSTRUM is his manager.

The Farm Bureau has gained a few members who were '60 grads, Jim told me. MIKE MCNEILL is their new president, MURL WALKER is vice-president, and TED MCNEILL and MARV BROESDER are their "backers" in this pressure group. MARILYN SIMPSON owns a horse farm but refuses to join any pressure group.

I wasn't aware that Algona was such a growing metropolis until Jim's eyes opened wide and he declared excitedly that JERRY COWAN is supervising the construction of a new skyscraper. Cousin PAT is head of Roto-Rooter Corporations all over the U. S. Yes, the Cowans are doing quite well.

As always, the gas station business is thriving. DALE NAUMAN is the proud owner of Dale's Skelly and Zulabel Ankenbauer, having shortened her name somewhat, helps her husband on week-ends at his station.

Algona now possesses another restaurant, "ANDY'S HUFF PUFF" on the outskirts of town.

FBLA has again achieved its purpose. JO KLEMM is the devoted secretary of Shumway, Kelly, and Fristedt. DEANNA LAU is telephone operator in the new five story office of which ARLO BEITZ is head janitor, having received his training in this line during high school.

The "little shop on the side street" has revised its name to Elva, Jessie, and JEANIE'S. DOROTHY AREND drops in quite frequently to buy outfits for her grandchildren. At this point Jim refilled my coffee cup and asked if I'd like to contribute to the Free Expression Room. I declined, asking him to continue his report. He said the rest have all moved away from Algona, the former LINDA CLARK doing it the easy way - by trailer. CONNIE HALL has taken permanent residence in Maquoketa. GLORIA REEFER and DIANE MARKLA have moved to Britt where they now operate a combination drug and clothing store. PHIL EGEL is head of the physics department at Iowa State University, and his wife JUDITH has a sweet pea garden. ANN SMITH is also teaching homemaking at ISU. The State University of Iowa has retained three grads in the field of medicine. JAN BODE and CHERYL IMMERFALL are instructors of Pediatric Rheumatology and Bill (no 1.) TORDOFF is a medical technician at the University Hospitals. BILL (no. 2) KRAFT has finally moved to California where he's a life guard. DON PATTON is testing new cars designed by DAVE MCDONALD at Daytona Beach. KATHY CHURCHILL, now married, operates a beauty shop in Des Moines and drives a full Corvette.

Two of the class members now reside in Europe. DEANNE HUTCHISON is a fashion designer of "short subjects" in Paris and SANDRA PARSONS is selling French perfumes. MARGARET YEOMAN is teaching Spanish in the "New" Cuba. DONNA REEFER has completed her article for ESQUIRE magazine entitled "Let the Sun Do It." DAVE STRICKLER is a famous artist in Greenwich Village, collecting glass bottles as a hobby. RON TSCHETTER is operating a chain of grocery stores, specializing in water-melons. DAVID PASSMORE, a specialist in six languages, is now a highly paid interpreter at the U.N. Two outstanding musicians in the class have made a great name for themselves. BEN HERBST has been promoted from spectator to participant in the Stan Kenton Band. KIM DEAL is now starring at the La Scala in Italy.

The armed forces have claimed JIM OBERWETTER, JEFF A THERTON, and BETTY BERNINGHAUS. Betty is one of the few secret service officials. DAVE STEVEN and DURWOOD NELSON are testing rockets to the moon. Dave claims he even saw the moon on one trip! Jim stopped and began another "da-da." I quickly reminded him that he forgot his class president. Jim smiled and said he was proud to say that the Rev. Richard Zweifel is now chaplain of the U.S. Senate. Suddenly I heard an argument in the Free Expression Room. Jim laughed at my startled face and said that must be John and PAM arguing again. The former Pam Waller, he continued, has her M.A. in English now and is collaborating with John on a book. I hesitated and then asked- "What book?" Jim told me wearily that the title is "Away With Capital Punishment." He asked me again if I didn't want to contribute to their expressions and then turned back to his painting.
